

INSTITUTE OF FOREST GENETICS & TREE BREEDING, COIMBATORE

Report on Good Governance Week Celebration on 27.12.2021

As a part of Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav (AKAM), Institute of Forest Genetics and Tree Breeding, Coimbatore organized a special lecture on “Ethics and Values at Workplace” on the occasion of Good Governance Week on 27th December 2021.

Dr.R.Yasodha, Scientist-G & Group Co-ordinator (Research), IFGTB welcomed the chief guest, Shri Krishna Mohan, IAS(Retd.), National Trainer and Facilitator on Ethics and all the staff members of IFGTB gathered online and offline and explained about the Good Governance Day. The day is observed in India on the twenty fifth Day of December, birth anniversary of former Prime Minister Shri Atal Bihari Vachpayee. It was initiated in 2014 to honor Shri Vachpayee by fostering awareness among the Indian People, of accountability in Government. The inaugural address was delivered by Dr.C.Kunhikannan, Director, IFGTB and he emphasized the importance of Values and Ethics at Workplace citing the criteria of Good Governance Index.

The Chief Guest, Shri Krishna Mohan, IAS (Retd.), National Trainer and Facilitator on Ethics delivered a special lecture on “Values and Ethics at Workplace”. In his lecture he discussed about the Values and Ethics. He explained that values are closely related to the human character and Ethics is about taking decisions according to the context, situations and need of the hour. He focused that Good Governance means following Rule of Law, Efficiency, Accountability, Transparency, Responsiveness, Consensus oriented, Participatory and Inclusiveness in their job. He also pointed on four pillars of Citizen Centric Administration viz., Ethos of service to the citizen, Ethics is Honesty, Integrity and Transparency, Efficiency is speedy and effective delivery of service and Equity is treating all citizens alike with empathy.

In total 130 nos. of employees participated in the event. The programme was concluded with the vote of thanks delivered by Shri Murali Sankaar.K, IFS, Head of Office, IFGTB.

Welcome address by Dr.R.Yasodha, GCR

Inaugural address by Dr.C.Kunhikannan, Director

Special Lecture by the Chief Guest

Participants in the online lecture

Another view of Participants

Vote of Thanks by Shri Murali Sankaar.K, IFS, Head of Office