

RFRI, JORHAT CONDUCTS XXII RAG

The XXII Research Advisory Group (RAG) Meeting of Rain Forest Research Institute, Jorhat was held on 25th September, 2020. Dr. R. S. C. Jayaraj, Director welcomed all the esteemed members, guests and scientists and explained the mandate and role of RAG meeting.

Dr. R. K. Borah, Group Coordinator (Research) delivered a detailed presentation on achievements of the Institute in the august gathering. Dr. S. C. Nath, Director's Grade Scientist (Rtd.), NEIST, Jorhat; Dr. Akashi Sarma, Professor, AAU, Jorhat; Dr. Salvinder Singh, Professor, AAU, Jorhat; Dr. Mitul Saikia, Professor, AAU, Jorhat; Dr. Ananta M. Baruah, Professor, AAU, Jorhat; Dr. S. P. Saikia, Principal Scientist, NEIST, Jorhat personally attended the Meeting. Due to COVID pandemic situation, a few Scientists and Officers participated through videoconferencing mode. They included Dr. Badal Bhattacharya, Principal Scientist, AAU, Jorhat; Dr. D. J. Nath, Professor, AAU, Jorhat; Dr. B. N. Hazarika, Dean, College of Agriculture, CAU, Pasighat (Arunachal Pradesh); Shri Atanu Saha, Director (S&T), NEC Shillong, Meghalaya and Dr. Vimal Kothiyal, Assistant Director General (RP), ICFRE, Dehradun.

There were five new project proposals presented by different Principal Investigators. The RAG members contributed constructive suggestions for further improvement of the projects. Their suggestions were recorded for inclusion in the final presentation in the RPC. The eight on-going research projects were also reviewed.

Dr. R. K. Borah gave formal vote of thanks at the end of the Meeting.

GLIMPSES OF THE MEETING

