Rain Forest Research Institute, Jorhat organized two Exposure Visits of students of Kendriya Vidyalaya, ONGC, Cinnamara, Jorhat on 11 and 12 February, 2020 under PRAKRITI PROGRAMME. Around 150 students of Class III to VI visited the Institute on 11 February, 2020 and equal number of students of Class VII and XI visited on 12 February, 2020.

EXPOSURE VISIT ON 11 FEBRUARY, 2020:

Shri R. K. Kalita, Head, Extension Division welcomed the students and apprised them about various activities of the Institute. Later, Dr. Arundhati Baruah and Mrs. Bijumoni Kalita guided the students to the field and laboratories. They visited the Forest Pathology laboratory where various macro fungi and other disease samples were displayed. They visited Entomology laboratory and Tissue Culture laboratory. The students visited bambusetum where they were shown 63 different species of bamboos. They also visited bamboo nursery where various techniques of bamboo propagation were explained. The students visited Bamboo Composite Centre and were shown various works related to bamboo utilization and value addition.
EXPOSURE VISIT ON 12 FEBRUARY, 2020:

Shri R. K. Kalita, Head, Extension Division welcomed the students and delivered a presentation on research and development activities of the Institute and also explained about the PRAKRITI PROGRAMME of the Institute.

Later on Dr. Krishna Giri, Scientist C and Dr. Arundhati Baruah, Scientist B guided the students to various laboratories, bambusetum, nursery, botanical garden and bamboo composite centre. They visited the Forest Pathology laboratory where various macro fungi and other disease samples were displayed. They visited Entomology laboratory and Tissue Culture laboratory. The students visited bambusetum where they were shown 63 different species of bamboos. They also visited bamboo nursery where various techniques of bamboo propagation were explained. The students visited Bamboo Composite Centre and were shown various works related to bamboo utilization and value addition.
Exposure Visit of Students under Prakriti Programme 2020

Glimpses of Visit on 11 February, 2020
GLIMPSES OF VISIT ON 12 FEBRUARY, 2020